CALLED BUSINESS MEETING:

On Sunday, December 28, there will be a brief Called Business Meeting after morning worship for the purpose of making one small change to the church 2026 budget. The change will zero out one line item, adding those funds to another line item. This edit will not change the "bottom line" previously approved by the church. The Budget and Finance Committee recommends the change to ensure that the church remains in compliance with all laws and regulations regarding the pastor's salary and benefits.

NOUVELET CHAMBER CHOIR will sing the good news of Christmas for their 14th annual Christmas concert at Kilmarnock United Methodist Church (next door) TODAY, Dec. 21, at 2:00 pm. Wayne Hare, Nouvelet’s new director and Music Director at KUMC, has put together an exciting program of traditional Christmas music, contemporary pieces, and spirituals. The 16 singers, including our own Lynn McCrobie, will be accompanied by 6 talented local musicians. Nouvelet’s concert is a gift to the community, though the Choir will appreciate a donation to help support their music-related philanthropies. This year Nouvelet is supporting the music program at Lancaster public schools.

Candle Lighting	Ayla & Olivia Saunders			Waiting	Pepper Choplin
Today we light four candles The first candle reminds us that during Advent we hear again the good news of ultimate hope offered through Jesus Christ. The second candle calls us to believe that just as God fulfilled the promise to the Israelites, God’s plan continues to unfold in our world today. The third candle calls us to accept that with God, nothing is beyond possibility, for we serve a God who can do all things. We light the fourth candle as a call to faithful obedience to the ways of God. As we continue our Advent journey, let us hear what God has spoken, believe what God has promised, accept what God has revealed, and obey what God has commanded.				Breath of Heaven	Arr: Roger Emerson
